Subject: Re: Revoking of Provincial & Federal Emergencies Act - Additional Info

My concern is that this is why Vankllek Hill is now waiting until tomorrow morning to move as they may wish to come through town knowing this information

Subject: Revoking of Provincial & Federal Emergencies Act - Additional Info

Hi all,

This email is to provide more information on the revoking of the provincial and federal emergencies act. This was an unexpected event, and has caused a big shift in posture from our policing partners. My understanding is that police no longer have the ability to remove vehicles from the roadways, as these are no longer considered critical infrastructure without the act(s) in place. Police also no longer have the power to enforce checkpoints, and use their cruisers as blockades.

Policing partners are in a meeting with their legal department(s) to discuss how we can adapt, but as we speak, trucks have already pulled out of the Herbs truck stop (Cornwall) and completely blocked the 417 eastbound.

This may force us to come up with new contingency plans and alternate methods to keep convoy vehicles out of the City.

I will provide an update as soon as I receive more information from our partners,

Thanks,

Michelle
